1. Background

Noida Export Processing Zone (NEPZ) was set up in 1985 as an industrial and services zone for generating economic activity through exports while creating employment and attracting investment. Subsequently, in 2000 the Special Economic Zone (SEZ) policy was formulated and it was renamed as the Noida Special Economic Zone (NSEZ). A standalone SEZ Policy came up in 2005 with the SEZ Rules made in 2006. The zone is spread over 310 acres and has 202 plots and 14 Standard Design Factories (SDFs). There are around 260 functional units in the zone which are into manufacturing, services, trading and warehousing. The zone is a multiproduct with units in the information technology, electronics, engineering, food processing, handicraft and textiles space. The total employment in the zone is around 40,000.
